

The gaieties of the past week were fully enjoyed by lovers of society and proved a satisfaction to both entertainers and entertained. A week so well filled is not often granted to society followers.

The next few weeks promise to be filled with unusually attractive and brilliant events, and we may now feel that society is fairly launched on a whirl that will fill the days with splendor and make the closing weeks of '38 notably brilliant ones.

Coming Events.

Tuesday evening of this week Mrs. J. J. Daly and Miss Daly will give a dance at Landrum's, to which one hundred and twenty of their friends have been bidden.

Wednesday the Deux Temps club party will take place.

Thursday evening the second dance of the Bachelors' club will take place at Christensen's.

Friday the teachers and principals of the public schools will give a large reception at the Knutsford as a farewell to Dr. and Mrs. Millsbaugh.

Christmas Eve will be celebrated at Fort's by a dance, given by Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ford and Mr. Will Ford.

The Wednesday following Christmas the members of the Alta club will give their reception, which will eclipse all other entertainments of the season. New Year's day a large reception will be given at the Kenyon by a number of the younger set, and the same day the Y. M. C. A. will give an elaborate affair.

Jan. 4 Mrs. Theron Geddes and Miss Geddes will give a reception and dance at the Knutsford. Invitations to the number of 225 will soon be issued. Among other affairs being planned for the early days of the new year are a dance to be given by the Misses Noble, and a reception by the officers and ladies of Fort Douglas.

Alta Club Luncheon.

Mr. W. J. Lawrence gave an elaborate luncheon on Tuesday at the Alta club. The table was decorated in yellow and white, roses and chrysanthemums being the flowers used.

Present were Mrs. J. Robinson Walker, Mrs. Charles Post, Miss Alf, Miss Thorne, Miss Colton, Mr. Max Smith and Mr. Bert Varian.

At Sixty-three.

Dr. and Mrs. Ploutz gave three elaborate card parties during the week. Chrysanthemums, palms and ferns formed the artistic floral decorations. On Monday evening nine tables were arranged. The score cards were daintily etched miniatures, and the tallies were heart-shaped cards, prettily decorated. Prizes were won by Mrs. J. M. Bideau, Mrs. W. H. Bancroft, Mrs. John Zane, Mr. Geddes, Dr. Worthington and Dr. Lindsay.

Wednesday evening there were ten tables, the prizes being won by Miss Terhune, Mrs. Woodward, Mrs. Calvin, Mr. Nolden, Dr. Niles and Mr. Geddes.
